On The Farm With The Vet Trainees

On Thursday of last week Mr. C. W. Goolsby and Mr. L. L. Sellers, State District Supervisor in Vocational Agriculture, met with the Coffee County Veterans to discuss plans and records for 1949.

Mr. L. L. Sellers emphasized the need for the county teachers to help the veterans in training to make plans to diversify their crops. "With costs on our cotton, peanuts, and especially cotton, that all veterans make plans to grow a variety of crops to supplement their cash income from these crops," stated Mr. Sellers. He also said that the income from hogs, dairy cows and chickens can be increased easily.

For example, one can obtain a peanut loan for land.

In general a loan may be made to construct, improve, alter, repair or replace a dwelling or other building essential to the operation of the farm.

Who is eligible?

To be eligible for a housing loan, one must be a farm owner, unable to get a loan elsewhere and lack the necessary capital to make the needed improvements. You must also be able to repay the loan from farm and other income. Tenants or farm owners not eligible, an owner may borrow to build or repair houses for his tenants.

What are the terms of the loan?

A borrower has from 5 to 33 years to repay his housing loan but may repay it in a shorter time. The interest rate is four percent.

Can I borrow to refinance an existing loan?

No, security does a borrower give?

The loan is secured by a mortgage on the farm, subject to any existing priorities, and such additional security as may be necessary to reasonably protect the Government's investment.

How large must a farm be to qualify for a loan?

Two plots of one acre each were selected as areas for demonstration. The peanuts were planted at the same time, fertilized at the same time, and harvested alike except that one plot received four applications of twenty pounds each of Copper-sulfur DDT at two week intervals beginning the last week in July. The other plot was not dusted.

The peanuts from these two plots were harvested under the supervision of Mr. Fred D. Clark, teacher at Zion Chapel.

The peanuts were weighed separately and it was found that the peanuts picked from the dusted plot weighed 1,350 pounds and those from the undusted plot weighed 950 pounds. The increase due to dusting was 574 pounds, bringing $5.70. The cost of dusting, including dust and dusting was $7.60, leaving a profit of $5.30 per acre due to the dustings.

These results are hard to believe unless one saw the demonstration, and did the testing. There were 15 stacks on the dusted plot and only 10 on the undusted. A member of the class who picked the peanuts said he had never seen leaves stay on peanuts as those did on the dusted plot. Although there were more leaves on those secured from experiments carried on at the station at Headland, several of the class members said they would not have believed them if they had not seen the peanuts weighed.

The members of the class who participated in the demonstration, with Mr. C. Chanceller, Federal Flowers, Truman J. Fuller, Leon Hardy, Rex Hardy, J. P. Jackson, John V. Legg, Ray Johnson, Thomas Johnson, Tullis F. Kelley, Ludwic Miller, Douglas Sanders, Edmund E. Simmon, Jessie Smart, Mabel Smart, Shirley Stevens, James H. Sunday, Leland Walden, and Marshall Whitaker.

A family who moved from town to the suburbs decided they needed a watchdog to guard the house at night. So they bought the largest dog they could find in the kennel and the next day the dog was gone. burglar broke into the house. They were not disturbed at all by the dog who slept throughout the burglary. The head of the house was not the dealer and complained.

"Well," explained the dealer, "what you need now is a little dog to wake up the big dog."

Questions Answered About Federal House Loans For Building

With the recent closing of the first farm housing loan under the new Housing Act of Congress Mr. Pridgen, County Supervisor of the Farmers Home Administration, said his office has received many inquiries from persons who wish to build or repair their houses or farm buildings.

A total of four applications for farm housing loans have been filed in Coffee County. Mr. Pridgen emphasized that the loans will be made available to persons who are unable to obtain adequate credit on reasonable terms from other sources. Mr. Pridgen released the following list of questions and answers regarding the new farm housing program:

For how much could I obtain a building loan?

In general a loan may be made to construct, improve, alter, repair or replace a dwelling or other building essential to the operation of the farm.

What amounts have been allocated for farm housing loans?

The Housing Act authorizes a lending program covering a four year period with a maximum lending authorization of $275 million for the four years. For the first fiscal year ending next June 30, $25 million will be available for loans for construction and repair of farm houses and other buildings, and $2 million for loans to improve farm land and for grants to make minor improvements to provide healthful, sanitary and safe farm housing. Alabama has been allotted $1,200,000 for farm housing loans for the current fiscal year.

Where do I apply?

At the office of the Farmers Home Administration that serves the county where you live.

Invites Hunters

Mr. B. S. Brunson writes this week concerning the posting of land in Coffee County. While we do not agree with Mr. Brunson entirely, we think his attitude is commendable. Most of the persons we know to have land have posted land tell us that they have done so reluctantly, but had to do it because of abuses of hunters to their property. Many of them say they will allow hunters on their land with permission, so that the owners will have to pay on in case of damage to his property. Others just plain don't want anybody to hunt on their land.

Mr. Brunson's letter is as follows:

"I notice by reading the Clipper that a large number of land owners have posted their land and forbidden hunters or fishermen to enter upon their premises. I am recognized as being one of the extensive land owners of the county, and I believe that I have no right to forbid anyone who wants to hunt or fish the privilege of indulging in these harmless pastimes, using my land. Let him hunt on his own posted land but stay off mine."

However I do object to anyone who sees fit to post his land, thus robbing a poor, landless master of his right to the privilege of indulging in these harmless pastimes, using my land. Let him hunt on his own posted land but stay off mine."

By 1941 the firm had an annual gross of $900,000. In 1948 it had grown to 27 million dollars, and this year Du Mont expects it will reach 45 to 50 million dollars.

He is now in the market for work now and just this week dedicated a million dollar plant at East Paterson, N. J., capable of turning out 10,000 sets every 20 seconds.

Du Mont has patented more than 50 inventions and still thinks a couple of them may be with some 60 TV sets he has set up in a laboratory near his home.

He used to keep them in the house, but his wife screamed so much I had to move them out to a lab," he said.

He feels that radio will soon be needed in the field and still believes this is already true in the larger cities. And he stubbornly contests the contention by some that radio will gain its dominance during the next few years.

"We already have a bigger audience on some of our daytime TV programs than competing radio stations," he said.

He is open to all others.

"I believe all land is God-given and He meant for everyone to have the privilege to hunt and fish on it, especially those who need to help out their source of transportation. I have a right to trap a fox or squirrel or catch a mess of fish. I realize that the law allows everyone the right to post his land and tell people to stay out. All I can say is the matter is to ask such persons to stay off my land, as I want to preserve it for the use of those who are not so selfish."

Respectfully,
B. S. Brunson

Rainbows in Living Room Not to Be Expected Soon

PASSAIC, N. J.—It will be at least a decade before you can have rainbows in your living room. Dr. Allen B. Du Mont, one of the "big three" television manufacturers, says color television is between 10 and 20 years away.

The federal communications commission has been holding hearings on whether to authorize color television overland. The FCC has decided that it would be "impractical" to do so.

The FCC has decided to advance its hearings so that it would approve any color system that would make television sets now on the market.

Mr. Du Mont believes that by 1958 there will be 13,000,000 video boxes in use, 1000 TV stations on the air, and some 900,000 persons in the United States watching color television.

The stocky, 48 year old scientist turned businessman began at the bottom. In 1928 he invented a device that became the biggest decision of his life—"to be my own boss."

By 1941 the firm had an annual gross of $900,000. In 1948 it had grown to 27 million dollars, and this year Du Mont expects it will reach 45 to 50 million dollars.

He is now in the market for work now and just this week dedicated a million dollar plant at East Paterson, N. J., capable of turning out 10,000 sets every 20 seconds.

'Mine Eyes Have Seen'

Lesson December 25, 1949

What can the old man see in the "sky"? There must have been some to ask that question, as the old, old man Simeon took the little six-weeks-old Jesus in his arms. His eyes were just another baby, but at the touch of him, Simeon broke out into words so filled with hope and ecstasy, so rhythmic, so eloquent, that his words, even to this day, are served as a hymn in all the great Christian churches of the world. "Mine eyes have seen a great light."

The old man, already moving with the thin line dividing this world from heaven, could see with the eye of the spirit what was to come. His eye, made a natural eye, was forsooth, to be this child is the hope of mankind.

Simeon, filled with the spirit of the ancient prophets, the child in his arms was a center of light.

At the rays from the dim and ancient galaxies came to a focus in this child; and from this child again there shone out to all the future years of man the hope of a better world. The ancient prophet, now forsooth, is now to be this child is the hope of mankind.

They have seen a great light. THE CHRISTIAN PROPHECIES. The Old Testament lesson testifies the hope of the Hebrew people. It was a hope that spread beyond themselves, their tiny hill country land, their little borders, and to the "Circle of the Nations," on to the world of vast peoples beyond their ken.

In a leaderless world, where men went blind, their minds snatched away by the amoks of darkness in the wavering hands of the blind, the prophets sang of the Coming One, the Messiah, God's chosen, who would bring men out of darkness into light, the Divine Counsellor.

In the centuries when the servants of God were smitten by those who worshipped only the sword, the prophets pointed confidently to the time when the leadership of the world would at least be in the hands of those who knew and understood and obeyed God.

Eyes of Flesh.

NOW THE PROPHETS do not understand their prophecies, as we are told by Peter (1 Pet. 1:10, 11); and certainly most of the Jews did not. When they heard the word of the prophet, they thought only of the kings they had known and admired, some how David, great in battle, or another Solomon, in a greater and more golden age.

So when the boy Jesus began in the dark stable under the hill, it was not everyone who could see what Simeon saw, that the "days of the prophecies were completed, now the Kingdom of righteousness and peace, the Realms of All Nations, was begun."

What Simeon's fading human eye saw was a great thing—a helpless infant from a peasant carpenter's home. It was only Simeon's inward eye that saw the truth.

Eyes of Faith.

YET THE EYE of faith can see Y more. The salvation God is bringing to the world has only just begun. As in Simeon's day the sun and the light were barely at the horizon, so now it is still but sunrise. The color of sunrise may be misty for those who have not been born again long ago. It is only those who have watched through the night who know the sunrise for what it is.

The songs of Christmas are not songs of here, and not only songs of here, but of the world. What we see is not still but sunrise. The color of sunrise may be misty for those who have not been born again long ago.

Who would turn back this world, for all its wretchedness and frustration, into what it was before? What has never been born?

At Christmas time we rejoice, not that all things have been accomplished, but that the prophecies of good have come true.

Job, rather than the God-sent Leader, the Messiah, the Saviour, has come, and that with his coming salvation and light and glory have begun.

Music Hath Charms' Is BORN AGAIN

LOS ANGELES—They never had it so good, the poor creatures that human beings are to treat the hell out of them when they are being lowered with lumps of coal. Soft music greets the ears of the inmates of the new animal shelter of the Los Angeles Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

The shelter also includes bunk beds, a diet kitchen and geriatric animal. And a drinking fountain which dispenses fresh water to dogs on the street outside is labeled a "dog bar."

KINSTON NEWS

Stratton Story Is History Of Famous Pitcher

The Stratton Story, showing at the Kinston Playhouse, Tuesday and Wednesday, December 26 & 27 is the story of a real-life American who came from the sand lots of Texas to win fame as a pitching star with the Chicago White Sox. After two seasons that appeared to put him on the way to stardom, Stratton suffered a hunting accident that caused amputation of his right leg. How he came back, eight years later, to resume a pitching career in the game he loved and to be named the "Most Courageous Athlete of the Year" is one of the history of sports. Stratton himself came to Hollywood to work as a technical advisor on the picture.

For James Stewart the picture brings one of his most colorful roles, as well as his return to MGM since the war.

Opposite Stratton for the first time is June Allyson who steps into the dramatic portrayal of Stratton's sweetheart and wife.

Miss Evelyn Richardson, a student nurse of St. Margaret's hospital in Montgomery, now going to a nursing school in Nashville, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Richardson.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

Sure, I have real estate for sale. Beautiful homes, nice farm investment property, but at the same time, our thoughts go back to the little Town of Bethlehem, where a Child was born in a manger because there was no room in the Inn; where Angels told the Shepherds who were watching their flock by night, and the wise men gifts to the little friend. For, of course, know the story, so all I want to say in this ad is thanks; thanks for your friendship; thanks for your confidence; and above all, thanks for the privilege of joining you in saying, "Thanks God" for the little Boy who was born in a manger.

A merry Christmas to you and yours.
